

Care – Perspectives from India and Germany

Samvad Symposium

6th October, 2021

Casino 1.801 Campus Westend

10:00 Opening remarks

Dr. des. Vladislav Serikov / Prof. Dr. Ajit Sikand

10:05 Welcome words to the guests of honor and the participants

Dean Prof. Dr. Christof Mandry

Dean of Studies Prof.in Dr. Anja Middelbeck-Varwick

10:15 Greetings and a few words on the Indo-German intercultural dialogue

Consul General Dr. Amit Telang

10:30 India and Germany: a few words on 70 years of our diplomatic relations

Prof. Dr. Ajit Sikand

10:45 Love is service: poetics of care in North Indian Bhakti poetry

Prof. Dr. Namrata Chaturvedi (SRM University Sikkim)

11:30 Concepts and practices of care for humans, animals and plants in the Jain community of India: prospects for the 21st century

Dr. Andrea Luithle-Hardenberg (Goethe-University Frankfurt)

12:15 Lunch break

13:30 Care in the light of Christian ethics

Prof. Dr. Christof Mandry (Goethe-University Frankfurt)

14:15 Care and global justice in recent political philosophy

Prof. Dr. Thomas M. Schmidt (Goethe-University Frankfurt)

15:00 Concluding remarks

Prof. Dr. Ajit Sikand / Dr. des. Vladislav Serikov

For participation on-site please contact serikov@em.uni-frankfurt.de

